STATE SHERIFFS CONFISCATE LARGE AMOUNT OF MARIJUANA IN LUGGAGE LEFT AT HONOLULU INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

HONOLULU – On December 26, Sheriff Deputies confiscated a large amount of marijuana from a piece of luggage at the Honolulu International Airport. The luggage contained 12 large, clear plastic bags filled with an undisclosed amount of marijuana.

The abandoned bag was found at the Hawaiian Air baggage claim. An airline employee discovered it and immediately called Sheriffs.

The Sheriffs turned the marijuana and the case over to the DEA for further investigation.
